Adi Galong of India

language: Adi
primary religion: Hinduism population: 36,000

No roads, no electricity, no services, and virtually no churches

- The Adi people live in a very remote region with no roads or electricity.
 - Expression by dance is an important part of the Adi culture.
- Adi women are renowned throughout northern India as expert weavers.
- The conversion of the Adi would likely impact dozens of smaller, related peoples throughout this ethnically diverse area.
