Middle Atlas Berbers of Morocco

language: Tamazight primary religion: Islam population: 2,552,000

Religious practices are based more on traditions

- Semi-nomadic sheep and goat herders who have permanent villages.
- Many Berbers were Christians until the eighth century when they were forced by Arabs to convert to Islam.
- In urban areas, orthodox Islam prevails; whereas, in rural societies, ancient beliefs and customs are intermingled with their Muslim faith.
