India

Population: 17,000

Religion: Hinduism

Christian: 0.01%

The Gavara (also known as the Kavara) of India are unengaged and unreached. They are part of the Tamil people cluster within the South Asian Peoples affinity bloc. This people group is only found in India. Their primary language is Malayalam.

The primary religion practiced by the Gavara is Hinduism, the predominant religious tradition of the Indian subcontinent. There are many forms of Hinduism, each with its own deities and beliefs.

Not much is known about the Gavara people groups. Pray that the Lord will break down these barriers of knowledge and understanding and that Christians will be able to get to know the Gavara as they share the gospel with them.

Pray for the salvation of the Gavara; that they would come to know the love of Christ.
