

PAKY

of India

Population: 19,000 Religion: Ethnic Religions
Christian: 0% Language: Telugu

The Paky of India, numbering 19,000, are unengaged and unreached. They are part of the Telugu people cluster within the South Asian Peoples affinity bloc. This people group is only found in India. Their primary language is Telugu.

The primary religion practiced by the Paky is ethnic religion. Ethnic religion is deeply rooted in a people's ethnic identity and conversion essentially equates to cultural assimilation.

The Paky are a Scheduled Tribe of India, meaning they're considered Dalit, or untouchable, by the rest of Indian society.

Pray for the Paky to find their worth and value in the love of Christ rather than their society.
